

Château Doisy Daëne

CRU CLASSÉ EN 1855

Millésime : 2016

History

A Doisy wine was first mentioned in the "Topography of all Known Vineyards" written by André Jullien (1832). Doisy growth was included amongst the twenty first classified Bordeaux white wines of which there are five. Daëne is in Charles Cock's classification (1846), ranked amongst the 4 classified first growths of Barsac with Coutet, Climens and Myrat. In 1850 the same writer classified it amongst the 11 Bordeaux white first growths. The name Doisy Daëne stems from a combination of the Doisy growth using the proprietor's name, Jean Jacques Emmanuel Daëne, a Bordeaux wine merchant.

The growth that appears in the 1855 classification is Doisy belonging to Daëne. In 1875, JJE Daëne's three sons inherit the growth. In the same year a portion is sold to the Dubroca Brothers who, in turn, in 1978, sell Doisy-Daëne to Jean Paul Billot. His only daughter, Pauline, who married Jean Lodoïs Juhel-Renoy, a Parisian wine merchant, inherited the estate. She then sold it to the Debans brothers in 1889. Georges Dubourdieu bought Doisy-Daëne from the inheritors of the Debans brothers in 1924. Thus over a span of 80 years we have three generations of winemakers, from father to son, whose greatest passion is the making of fine wines Georges, Pierre and Denis.

Georges, a perfectionist, vigneron and winemaker acquired the growth and confirmed its reputation by means of legendary vintages up until 1949.

Pierre was both passionate and entrepreneurial. In his quest for innovation he enlarged Doisy-Daëne by acquiring a section of Doisy-Dubroca; in the early 1950's, he created the Doisy-Daëne Grand Vin Sec. For a period of fifty years he produced memorable bottles.

Starting in 2000, Denis presided over the destiny of Doisy-Daëne. Simultaneously he was professor at the Oenology faculty in Bordeaux as well as becoming an internationally famous Consulting oenologist. His sons Fabrice and Jean Jacques came on board in 2004.

After his untimely death in 2016, his sons, fourth Dubourdieu generation on Doisy-Daëne, have continued the family project.

WINE SPECTATOR

An enticing mix of plump pineapple, ginger, white peach and tangerine flavors, with a viscous edge to the finish. Shows the plumper, more forward style of the vinages but has admirable length and cut as well.

GAULT & MILLAU

Nez très floral, fruits blancs, complexe, racé. Bouche charnue et dense, une réelle complexité, très belle liqueur avec une finale calcaire et surtout aérienne (un peu coing aussi). Un des plus subtils, des plus précis.

unusually for the Dubourdieu family's top sweet wine, this was made solely with Sauvignon Blanc in 2016 (it usually has at least a third of Semillon). But what a wine it is. Super rich, dense and concentrated, with 205 grams of residual sugar and flavours of saffron, toast, pineapple and lemon curd.

WINE DOCTOR

This is the estate's special cuvée, made solely from Sauvignon Blanc. It has the usual distinctive Sauvignon Blanc nose, the fruit showing through as box tree and capsicum, very clearly declaring its varietal origins. The palate is sweet, creamed, very weighty and polished, with supple, broad substance. It is very Sauvignon in style, with a rather fat, glossy and heavily creamed weight. Overall, this is bright, with delicious acidity and freshness, with plenty of fresh energy and bite in the finish. An attractive wine, but as always so unlike the conventional view of Sauternes.
