

Château Cantegril

Millésime : 2011

History

Chateau Cantegril is a 22 hectare plot on the chalky plateau of the Haut Barsac. It is located where once a fortified castle of the same name stood back in the Middle Ages. It belonged to the duke of Epernon and then to the lords of Cantegril, one of whom married Miss de Myrat and built, the chateau Myrat on Cantegril as it stands today. In 1854 Chateau Cantegril was separated from Myrat as a ruling from the civil court on December 24th 1862 stipulated. Purchased by the Segur Montagne family, it changed hands several times until it became the property of Charles Rodberg, the Belgian Consul in Bordeaux, and then that of Emile Raymond. In 1924 it was bought by Denis Dubourdieu's maternal great grand parents, the L'Hermite-Mansencal family.

Although not listed in the official classification of 1855, Chateau Cantegril is mentioned among the second growths in the various editions of "Bordeaux and its Classified Wines by Order of Merit" written by Charles Cocks and Edouard Ferret (1874, 1881, 1886, 1893, 1898, 1908, 1922, 1929).

Chateau Cantegril has belonged to the same family since 1924 and has been managed in turn by Andre Mansencal until 1978, his son in law Pierre Dubourdieu until 2000, then by his son Denis Dubourdieu.

Since 2016 Fabrice and Jean Jacques Dubourdieu have carried on the family adventure. Fabrice Dubourdieu lives at Chateau Cantegril.

The wine

Comme ceux de Doisy Daëne, les vins liquoreux de Cantegril expriment la sève et la vivacité du terroir calcaire de Barsac.

The vineyard

The soil at Chateau Cantegril is the same as in the rest of the Barsac area, namely : 40 cms of clay on top of the typical limestone plateau of this appellation.

Area : 10.5 hectares

Variety : 100 % semillon grown exclusively for the production of sweet wines at Chateau Cantégril in the Barsac appellation

Comment(s)

www.quarin.com

Couleur vert-pâle. Nez fruité, frais comme un vin sec. Entrée en bouche délicate. Développement juteux, très aromatique, puis complexe après le milieu de bouche. Finale séveuse et distinguée, avec une pointe de sauvignon supérieure à d'habitude. Assemblage : 80 % sémillon, 20 % sauvignon.

Made by Denis Dubourdieu and true to form, it is very floral with lively aromatics of honeysuckle and ripe apricots. Lifted flavours from firm acidity. Good length, balance and freshness.

The 2011 Chateau Cantegril has a lightly honeyed nose with fine minerality that is perhaps more Sauternes in style than Barsac. The palate has a viscous entry, crisp acidity, impressive harmony and a very pure, botrytized finish that is long and satisfying. This is an excellent non-classified Barsac. Drink 2014-2020.
