

Château Doisy-Dubroca

GRAND CRU CLASSÉ EN 1855

Millésime : 2019

History

On April 11th 1809 : Jean Jacques Emmanuel Daëne, a Bordeaux wine marchand, husband to Marguerite Dubosc, bought Doisy from this brother in law Bernard Duboscq who had in turn inherited it from his own parents.

In 1875 the 3 sons of JJE Daene and Marguerite Duboscq (Georges, Edmond and Stanislas) inherited Doisy.

On the 9th of December 1875 the Doisy brothers handed over a part of it to the Broca brothers (Marcel et Camille), wine merchants of Cérons as well as consecutively mayors of the village.

In 1880 Marcel, mayor of Cérons, married his daughter Marguerite Dubroca to Henri Gounouilhou, a well known Bordelais printer and director of the newspaper “Petite Gironde”. He in turn in 1885 bought Chateau Climens. When Marcel Dubroca died, Doisy Dubroca went to the descendants of Henri Gounouilhou.

In 1958 Pierre Dubourdieu, the owner of Doisy Daene, bought a part of Doisy Dubroca.

In 1971 Lucien Lurton bought Chateau Climens as well as the chateau Doisy Dubroca.

In 1992 Louis Lurton, Lucien's son, took the property over and renovated the cellars.

In 2014 Denis Dubourdieu bought Doisy Broca from Louis Lurton and consolidated it with Doisy Daëne.

As of the 2019 vintage, the Dubourdieu family once again produced wine on a small scale after having entirely replanted the vineyard which had been pulled out by the Lurton family prior to the sale.

The wine

Ut wisi enim ad minim veniam, quis nostrud exerci tation ullamcorper suscipit lobortis nisl ut aliquip ex ea commodo consequat. Duis autem vel eum iriure dolor in hendrerit.

The vineyard

Terroir : clay and limestone

Area : 1.5 hectares

DENIS DUBOURDIEU DOMAINES

— Vignerons à Bordeaux depuis 1794 —

Variety : 100 % semillon

Average age of the vines : under five years

Production

Harvest : Manually harvested, successively picked and sorted.

Wine making : fermentation and ageing in barrels (33 % new wood)

Ageing time : 12 months in a barrel and 6 months in stainless steel tank

Comment(s)

www.yvesbeck.wine.fr

Jaune doré. Superbe bouquet marqué par la minéralité, la fraîcheur et des agrumes. Notes de pierre à feu, de craie et de pamplemousse. Je relève également des notes de nougat et une touche de houblon. Attaque racé et friande. Le vin est racé, crémeux et parfaitement équilibré. Très belle complémentarité entre une douceur contenue et une race aiguisée ! ça, c'est du Barsac... ça a de la gnaque ! Finale cremeuse et saline. Un vin rafraîchissant.

www.yvesbeck.wine.fr

Note : 94-96/100

DENIS DUBOURDIEU DOMAINES

— Vignerons à Bordeaux depuis 1794 —